November 2015 Issue

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Clubwomen,

This year is an historic year for our club. The Atlanta Woman's Club was organized on November 11, 1895. For 120 years we have made a positive impact on our community.

The 120th Anniversary Committee, which is made up of the 2015 LEADS graduates, has been busy organizing activities to celebrate our existence. The ladies are excited about the activities planned and have said we will celebrate in style.

I'd would like to encourage you to review the calendar of events and attend one, if not all, activities. I would like to suggest you RSVP early for the November meeting. Our GFWC Georgia President Ida Dorvee is the speaker.

On another topic, you will notice I'm using the term "clubwoman" quite a bit. I had the opportunity to attend the GFWC Southern Region meeting along with Clubwomen Myra Carmon and Barbara Culmer-Ilaw last month. One thing that is always apparent when attending meetings such as this is each club is unique yet we are united as members of GFWC. Each meeting has wonderful speakers, vendors who are selling their products, yet what is inspiring to me is to see clubwomen exchange ideas among each other. It is truly what many of us learned in Girl Scouts "Make new friends, but keep the old, one is silver and the other gold." If you have not attended a meeting other than our club meeting, consider attending future meetings.

I hope to see you soon, and remember to RSVP early for any activities requiring reservations.

Judine

September & October were and November will be a busy month for the Conservation CSP. AWC's entry, The Volunteer "Spirit", in the Atlanta Botanical Garden (ABG) annual scarecrow event was constructed on September 26, 2015 at the Wimbish House. Karen Johnson created the "Spirit's" name. Anita Jansen, crocheted recycled plastic bags into the 120th banner; Kathrine Moore and Page Henry painted the beautiful face; Vanessa Lauren Massey styled the "nimbus" clouds and Page Henry painted them highlighting some of AWC's accomplishments (Wimbish House, Tallulah Falls, The Atlanta Airport, Auburn Market and the MLK Jr., "I Have a Dream" Rose Garden) ; Sarah June McDavid, Rita McGregor, Anita Jansen, Judy Reese, Vanessa Lauren Massey and Azam Zedeh, built the body and Penny Blackford obtained supplies, the dress and hooded cape.

Billie Faye Harris and her husband Flavius donated their truck and escorted the "Spirit" to ABG on October 5, 2015 along with JoDee Gonzalez and Penny Blackford. On October 22, 2015 Billie and her family including her mother Jacqueline Arbuthnot, Page Henry and her family including granddaughter Bella, Pat Walsh, Latonya and friend Jill Blockson , Melodie Rogers and her daughter Laura, Elvina Calland and Penny Blackford took their flashlights and visited the "Spirit" in the Gardens. ## ATLANTA STREETS ALIVE

This past weekend on Sunday, October 25, 2015, The Wimbish House was open to the public during the Atlanta Streets Alive event for the 6th year. Peachtree street was closed from 16th al the way down to Edgewood Ave., and at 2pm the bicycle parade began!. Some were decorated and some were not, but the excitement was shared by all. Closed to motorized traffic, the streets were filled with walkers, joggers and children cruising by in strollers sharing a safe and active environment. Musicians wandered down the street as well, adding a little more flair!

The GFWC AWC opened their doors at 2pm, and it wasn't long before we were packed with visitors. We offered short tours of the home or if desired, they could wander through the house at their own pace. Many commented that they worked nearby and had always wondered what was inside this beauty of a building! They soon found out! Cookies and lemonade were offered on the porch, and after the long walk many of them had, the refreshments were a welcome break!

All in all, it was a very successful and exciting afternoon, and it was great to see the community come out in support of the businesses and groups in the area, and as we approach our 120th Anniversary, the Wimbish House is now a well known part of that community.
